Go and Sin no More,

A Sacred Song Sung by Mrs. Crouch

Written by

Thomas Moore Esqr.

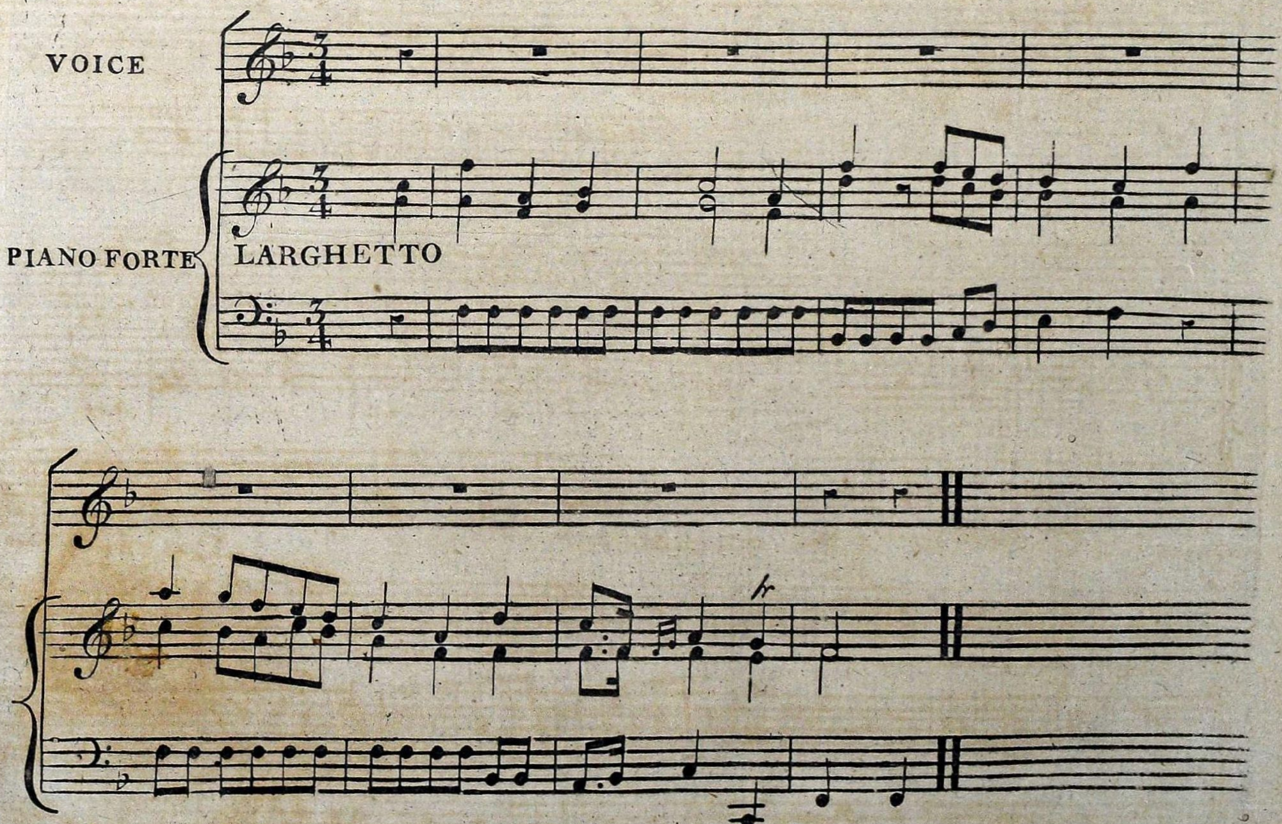
Composed by

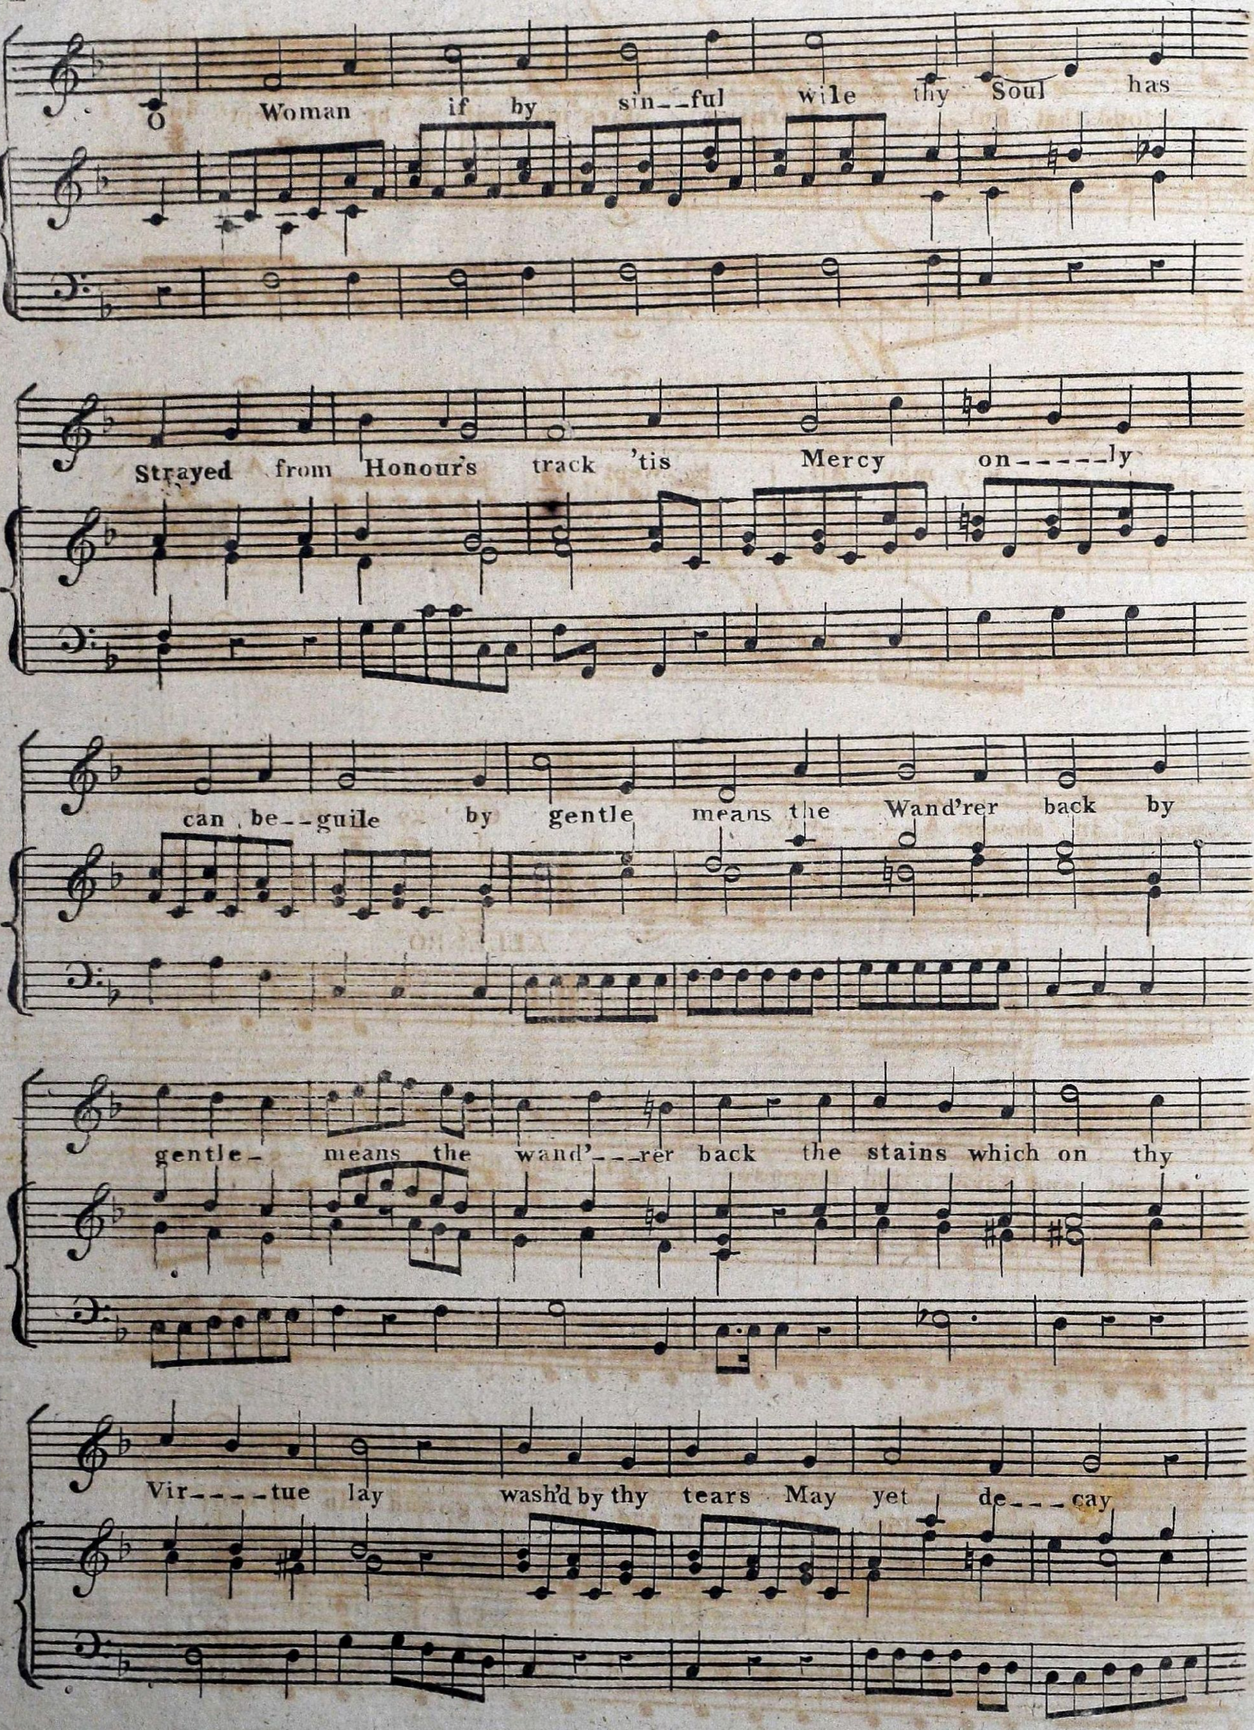
M. Kelly

Entd. at Stats. Hall

Pr. 1s. 6d.

And Published by him at his Musical Salloon No. 9 Pall Mall where may be had all the Operas & Ballets of the Kings Theatre & the works of the most Approved Composers





O Woman if by sin--ful wile thy Soul has Strayed from Honour's track 'tis Mercy on-----ly can be--guile by gentle means the Wand'rer back by gentle- means the wand'---rer back the stains which on thy Vir----tue lay wash'd by thy tears May yet de---cay

As clouds that Sul_ _ _ _ ly Morning skies may all be wept in showers a_ _ _ _ way may All be wept in Showers A_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ way in showers A_ _ _ _ _ way Go go go be ALLEGRO
Innocent and Live the tongues of Man may wound thee Sore But heav'n in Pity Can forgive and bid thee go and sin no more and bid thee go and Sin no more go go go and sin no more and bid thee go and Sin no more go go go and sin no more and bid thee go and Sin no more and bid thee

go and Sin no more